ERIE CANAL

The image shows a six-string guitar tablature for the song "ERIE CANAL". The tuning is indicated as gdgb at the top left. The tablature consists of five lines of six vertical columns, each representing a string. Fret numbers (0, 2, 4) are placed above the columns to indicate pitch. The lyrics are written below the tablature, corresponding to the notes. The first line of lyrics is: "We were for-ty—miles from Al-ban—y for—get it I nev—er shall — What a". The second line is: "ter-ri—ble storm we— had that— night on the E—ri—e Ca—nal —". The third line is: "Oh the E—ri—e was a—ris—ing— and the gin was a—get—ting low— And I". The fourth line is: "scarce-ly— think we'll— get a— drink till we get to Buf—fa—lo — Till we". The fifth line is: "get to— Buf—fa—lo". The tablature uses vertical lines with small horizontal dashes to represent individual notes.
