Arr by Robin Beech

The image displays three systems of musical notation for the piece "Paddy McNamara's Reel". Each system consists of three staves: a treble staff (labeled 8va), a guitar staff (labeled D, B, G, D, G), and a banjo staff (labeled T, A, B). The treble staff shows the melody in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The guitar and banjo staves provide fretboard notation with fingerings (0-5) and stroke indicators (H for upstroke, Po for downstroke). Arrows point to specific notes in the treble staff to indicate correct note duration. Triangles in the guitar and banjo staves indicate downstrokes. The first system includes a legend: "Arrow points to correct note duration" and "Triangle = DownStroke". The second system includes a measure number "4" at the start. The third system includes a measure number "7" at the start. The banjo staff in the third system includes a triplet of eighth notes marked with a "3" and a circled "T".
